By Kathryn Erskine

American Judo is an inspiring story of a young girl who overcomes adversity through the power of martial arts. Kathryn Erskine's writing is lyrical and evocative, and her characters are complex and relatable. This book is a must-read for anyone who has ever faced challenges in their life.

The protagonist of American Judo is 12-year-old Hana Kimura. Hana is a shy and introverted girl who is bullied by her classmates. She feels lost and alone, until she discovers judo. Judo gives Hana a sense of purpose and belonging. She learns to stand up for herself and to fight for what she believes in.

Hana's journey is not easy. She faces many challenges along the way. But with the help of her sensei and her friends, she learns to overcome her fears and to achieve her goals. American Judo is a story about the power of the human spirit. It is a story about the importance of friendship, courage, and perseverance. It is a story that will inspire readers of all ages.
