Meet the extraordinary Bailey School Kids, a quirky and endearing group of fourth-graders:

- Mrs. Jeepers: Their enthusiastic and absent-minded teacher who loves solving mysteries.
- Eddie: The class prankster with a mischievous grin.
- Melody: The brainy, book-loving girl who is always up for a challenge.
- Lucille: The shy and artistic nature-lover.
- Liza: The athletic and tomboyish girl who isn't afraid to get dirty.

An Enchanting Mystery

When the Bailey School Kids spot two leprechauns playing basketball on the school roof, they know they're in for a wild ride. But these aren't your average leprechauns; they're different, with golden hats and mischievous smiles. Leading the investigation is the determined Mrs. Jeepers, whose love for puzzles and her students knows no bounds.

Unraveling the Secrets

As the Bailey School Kids delve into the mystery, they encounter obstacles at every turn. The leprechauns are elusive and guarded, making it difficult to uncover the truth. But our young detectives refuse to give up. They unravel clues, decipher ancient texts, and face their fears to solve the secrets of the magical beings.

Lessons in Courage and Friendship

Beyond the enchanting mystery, "Leprechauns Don't Play Basketball" teaches valuable lessons about courage and friendship. The Bailey School Kids learn that teamwork, determination, and perseverance are essential ingredients for overcoming challenges. They also discover the importance of embracing differences and accepting those who may seem different from them.

Magical Illustrations

The captivating story is complemented by enchanting illustrations by John Steven Gurney, which bring the leprechauns, the Bailey School, and the magical world to life. These vibrant drawings add a whimsical touch to the story, making it even more enchanting for young readers.

"Leprechauns Don't Play Basketball" is a captivating chapter book that will ignite the imaginations of young readers. With its enchanting mystery, relatable characters, and heartwarming lessons, it's the perfect addition to any bookshelf. Dive into the magical world of the Bailey School Kids and discover the secrets of the leprechauns yourself!
