

Scripted: The Full-Length Play That Will Change the Face of Theatre

A Staged Reading Premiere

Scripted is a full-length play written by up-and-coming playwright Sarah Jones. The play follows the story of four young screenwriters who are struggling to make it in Hollywood. They meet at a staged reading of one of their screenplays and soon realize that they have more in common than they thought. As they work together to rewrite and produce the screenplay, they form a close bond and learn valuable life lessons about friendship, creativity, and the importance of pursuing their dreams.

A Behind-the-Scenes Look at the Creative Process

Scripted provides a unique behind-the-scenes look at the creative process of writing, rewriting, and producing a screenplay. The play offers insights into the challenges and rewards of working in the film industry, and it gives audiences a glimpse into the lives of four talented and passionate young artists.
