As a Penn State football fan, I have been fortunate to witness some of the greatest moments in the program's history. From the 1982 Fiesta Bowl to the 1986 National Championship game to the 2016 Big Ten Championship game, Penn State has had its share of memorable victories.

In his new book, The Twenty Two Greatest Penn State Football Victories Of Our Lives, author Rich Scarcella takes a look back at the most memorable wins in Penn State football history. Scarcella provides a detailed account of each game, including the key plays, the atmosphere, and the impact the win had on the program.

The book is a must-read for any Penn State football fan. Scarcella's writing is engaging and informative, and he does a great job of capturing the excitement and passion of Penn State football.

Here is a look at some of the greatest Penn State football victories of all time:

- 1982 Fiesta Bowl: Penn State defeated Georgia 27-23 in the 1982 Fiesta Bowl to win the national championship. The game was a classic, and it featured some of the most iconic plays in Penn State football history, including the "Fourth and Long" conversion.
- 1986 National Championship game: Penn State defeated Miami 20-18 in the 1986 National Championship game to win its second national championship in five years. The game was a thriller, and it featured a dramatic goal-line stand by the Penn State defense.
- 2016 Big Ten Championship game: Penn State defeated Wisconsin 38-31 in the 2016 Big Ten Championship game to win its first Big Ten championship since 2008. The game was a back-and-forth affair, and it featured a number of big plays by the Penn State offense.

These are just a few of the many great victories in Penn State football history. The Twenty Two Greatest Penn State Football Victories Of Our Lives is a must-read for any Penn State football fan. Scarcella's writing is engaging and informative, and he does a great job of capturing the excitement and passion of Penn State football.
